

FACES IN THE COMMUNITY

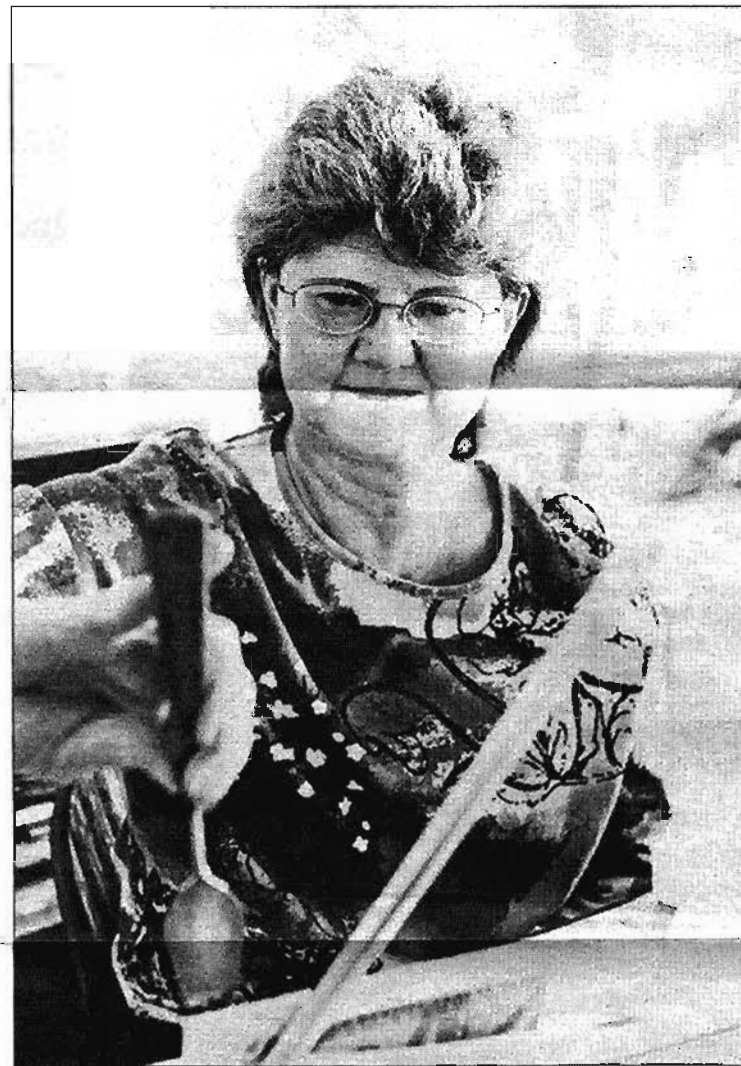

Daryl Urig of Harrison, center, works with Jody Ball of Waynesville who was painting using a palette knife in the painting studio with others at the Evendale Cultural Arts Center.

A painting being done with the palette knife technique. It offers a unique way to add in varying textures and colorful layers of color while still expressing a rare energy.

PAINTING WORKSHOP

Photos by Tony Jones/The Enquirer

LuAnna Klot of Deerfield Township works on her palette knife technique for a on a land scape painting at the Evendale Cultural Arts Center on Reading Road In Evendale. Daryl Urig of Harrison, known locally for his poster promoting Cincinnati Octoberfest, illustrations and packaging for Proctor and Gamble, was holding a two-day work shop on painting with a palette knife.